

Eagle Renewables Infrastructure Strategy

Strategy Profile

As of March 31, 2020

Strategy Overview

The Eagle Renewables Infrastructure strategy seeks to provide investors access to the core value proposition of the renewable infrastructure asset class through a concentrated portfolio of renewable infrastructure companies. The separately managed account (SMA) strategy targets a combination of dividends and long term stock price appreciation. Portfolios are managed by a team of investment professionals with a long history of success within the energy infrastructure sector.

Investment Highlights

- Essential Infrastructure: Renewables Infrastructure companies own or have interests in renewable or renewable-related infrastructure assets. Renewables energy includes wind, solar, hydro, biomass, ethanol, etc.
- Income + Growth: Compelling income supported by stable cash flows and long-term contracts. Long Term Secular Growth Story.
- Clean Energy: Renewables Infrastructure companies own and operate solar, wind, hydro and natural gas assets.
- Historical Performance: Renewables Infrastructure companies have historically outperformed other yield-oriented investments like REITs, utilities and bonds.
